

Dear RE/MAX Agent,

Each year, RE/MAX invests millions of dollars to bring you the best training programs the real estate industry has to offer so that you can continue to grow a strong business. At the beginning of 2010, we made a significant investment to help ensure your success by offering 100 Days to Greatness® or Ultimate Agent™ training for just $199 – a 50% savings.

Over the past four years, RE/MAX and Buffini & Company have trained more than 20,000 agents in these programs, and the results have been remarkable – even in 2009 the results were fantastic. Due to popular demand and our commitment to your success, RE/MAX is going to continue subsidizing the standard $395 cost for these programs to bring them to you at the discounted rate while supplies last.

These programs are available online, or through your broker if he or she is a Buffini & Company Certified Mentor. In addition, 100 Days to Greatness is broadcast monthly through RE/MAX University. We've also added a timely bonus marketing piece to Ultimate Agent and a complete bonus pack to 100 Days to Greatness.

The bonus pack includes:

- Four additional marketing pieces for you to download and send to your database.
- Short sale dialogs for capturing market share in this economic climate.
- A Complimentary Coaching Session from Buffini & Company to help you grow your business.
